FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering From Women's Ailments.

I am a woman's sufferer. I know women's sufferings. I have found the cure. I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from women's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—yes, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Much needless suffering, expense, and worry is caused by weakness peculiar to our sex. I want to send you a complete ten days' treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial; and if you should wish to continue, it will cost you only about 10 cents a week, or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book, WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVICE, its explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says: "You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all, old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and efficiently cures Leucorrhoea, Green Discharge, Painful or Irregular Menstruation in Young Ladies. Pimples and health always result from its use. Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell you sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten days' treatment is yours, also the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again. Address: MISS M. SUMMERS, Box 414 - - - - - Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. A.

Genoa.

From the Times.

Miss Mable Carpenter of Columbus arrived in this city the first of the week and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Houser.

Between four and five hundred dollars have been subscribed by our business men for the purpose of celebrating the 4th of July and the committee are all working to make it one of the best celebrations ever held in this city, and Genoa has put up some pretty good ones in the past. Come to Genoa to celebrate.

Constance Anderson of the Looking Glass is surely married good and hard time if reports are true. The first time he was married was five years ago last week, but his neighbors, fearing that it might not have been done up properly, turned out to the number of one hundred Friday night last and did it all over again. The affair was a complete surprise and a splendid time is reported by those present. The self invited guests presented their host and hostess with a beautiful lounge as a token of their respect. Constance says they can all come again in five years, if they desire.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurness, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good. Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or disease. Chas. H. Dack.

St. Edward.

[From the Advance.]

Wednesday evening, June 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Finch, occurred a pretty home wedding when their daughter, Miss Jennie J., was united in marriage to Mr. George O. Deines. Miss Myrtle Crouch presided at the piano which was placed on the broad veranda and played, the beautiful selection of Theo. Tobani, "Hearts and Flowers," "as the wedding party marched to their stations under an arch over the main entrance to the veranda. First to appear under the arch was the groom attended by Mr. Earl Blackburn. They were followed by Miss Sadie Finch, a sister to the bride, as bridesmaid, and Miss Helts Sharp as lady of honor. Little Iva Shaffer, a niece of the bride, followed bearing the wedding ring in an American beauty rose. The bride approached the altar from another entrance upon the arm of her father. The ceremony was the beautiful ring ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church and Rev. Edward Beaumont King of North Bend, a former pastor of the church here, was the officiating clergyman. The bride's dress was of cream Etoline, trimmed in Olney lace. She carried cream roses. After the ceremony the bridal party marched to the banquet tables which were arranged in a large tent on the lawn.

Harley and Josephine McAllister of Columbus are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Gibson.

St. Edward friends of Miss Georgia Wait received cards last week announcing her marriage at her home at Independence, Mo., to Mr. Milo G. Landes. Mr. and Mrs. Landes will be at home after July 10, at Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Balla of Sterling, Colo., are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Disner. Mr. Balla had held a position as superintendent of a beet sugar factory at Sterling for the last two years and after his visit here he goes to Orem, Mich., to accept a like position at an advance in salary.

Soda Crackers and—anything you choose—milk for instance or alone.

At every meal or for a munch between meals, when you feel the need of an appetizing bite to fill up a vacant corner, in the morning when you wake hungry, or at night just before going to bed. Soda crackers are so light and easily digested that they make a perfect food at times when you could not think of eating anything else.

But as in all other things, there is a difference in soda crackers, the superlative being a soda cracker so scientifically baked that all the nutritive qualities of the wheat are retained and developed—a soda cracker in which all the original goodness is preserved for you.
